

Putin Threatens Ukraine's Statehood Amid Mass Exodus

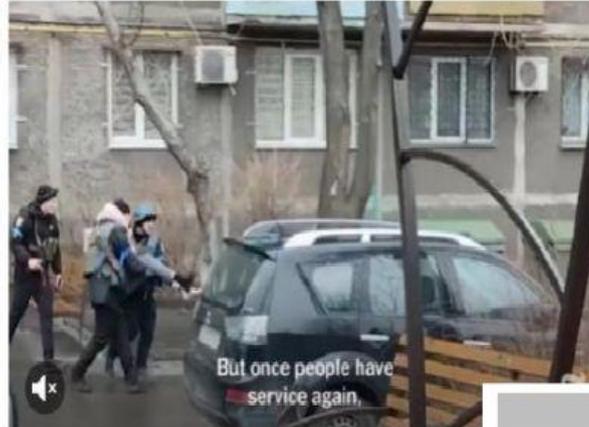

LIVE

Evacuation From Hard-Hit Mariupol Is Halted After Shelling

- Earlier, officials said that Russia and Ukraine had agreed to a limited cease-fire in the city, but Ukrainian officials said that Russia was not upholding it.
- President Vladimir Putin likened sanctions on Russia to a "declaration of war" and threatened Ukraine with the loss of its statehood. Here's the latest.

How the West Marshaled a Stunning Show of Unity Against Russia

No Water, No Electricity: Life Under Siege in Mariupol

Map via Google Earth, The New York Times

Russia has attacked power plants in Ukraine. See where the country's energy sites are located.

HEADLINE: _____

DATE: _____

LOCATION: _____

LEAD PARAGRAPH: _____

SUPPORTING PARAGRAPH:

a) Saturday March 5, 2022

b) Putin Threatens Ukraine's Statehood Amid Mass Exodus

c) How the west Marshaled a Stunning Show of Unity against Russia

d) Kiev, Ukraine

e) Evacuation from Hard-hit Mariupol is halted after shelling

