

Unit 7 listening 1: Embracing risk

1. Phil Mckinney has a killer innovations podcast. True
False
2. The range of risk include:
 - a. investing entire retirement fund
 - b. quitting your job
 - c. convincing others to take a risk with you
 - d. ask others for about your ideas
3. The main idea in the listening is about how our minds process risk. True False
4. A German researcher surveyed people in 2006. True False
5. The outcomes of the research were logical and made sense. True False
6. Tall people are more likely to take risks compared to short people. True False
7. Women take more risks compared to men. True False
8. Older people are more likely to take fewer risks. True False
9. Select the influencers that came out of the survey.
 - a. age
 - b. gender
 - c. height
 - d. parents
 - e. parental education
10. People who have had success and security in their previous life are more likely to take risks.
 - a. True
 - b. False
11. Comfort zone means how much risk you are willing to take. True False
12. According to the audio, older women find it unnerving to take risks True False
13. One way to assess your worries about taking risks is to write them out in detail.
 - a. True
 - b False
14. Neutralizing concerns means finding ideas to address each problem True False
15. You can invest a lot of money if you set a goal. True False
16. Risk is always present and does not go away. True False
17. you cannot use a risk profile with your spouse or boss True False
18. you should use creative ideas to address a risk profile creatively True False
19. The speaker says that he taught students to rock climbing True False
20. Rock climbing made him realise that everyone deals with fear in the same way.
 - a. True
 - False
21. The speakers advices that everyone should take the plunge no matter what
 - a. True
 - False