

I. Prepositions and phrasal verbs.

- I'm preparing _____ a class discussion on personal electronic devices.
A. to B. for C. on D. with
- A tablet with WiFi has Internet access and is great tool for looking _____ information.
A. at B. in C. up D. for
- Students use smartphones to record their phone calls, which they later share _____ the class.
A. with B. for C. about D. to
- In the age of technology, you can take advantage _____ new applications which are very useful for learning English.
A. from B. with C. on D. of
- Learning new vocabulary by translating slows _____ your learning process.
A. down B. by C. with D. from

II. Choose the word(s) CLOSEST in meaning

- A laptop is very convenient because it is portable.
A. effective B. easy to carry C. difficult to carry D. useful
- A tablet can be used to take notes with a digital pen on a touch screen.
A. write something down B. reach and use something
C. make full use of something D. access the Internet
- New technology makes learning English easier, faster, more effective and more enjoyable.
A. perfect B. producing a successful result
C. easy to use D. excellent

III. Choose the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning

- You can use your laptop to access the Internet, download programmes and information.
A. touch B. upload C. take note of D. change
- Tablets, laptops and smartphones are modern devices that have changed the way we learn.
A. out of date B. useful C. hopeless D. effective
- Some scientists think that children who are allowed to use electronic devices will have more advantages in the future.
A. encouraged B. asked C. banned