

Ever, never, just, yet, already, still, for and since

1. The neighbors have _____ bought a new car. Look how shiny it is!
2. Dave _____ hasn't seen Ghostbusters, and it's been out since 1984!
3. I've taken English classes _____ ten years, and I still make mistakes.
4. I don't want to see that movie again. I've _____ seen it three times.
5. Have you _____ been on a motorcycle?
6. We need a change of scene. Let's go somewhere we've _____ been to before.
7. Tom's my best friend. We've known each other _____ elementary school.
8. Mom has _____ baked cookies. The kitchen smells delectable.
9. Who's that guy over there? Have you _____ seen him before?
10. Susan's been sick at home _____ over a week.
11. I _____ haven't finished this essay, and it's due tomorrow!
12. Katie has changed a lot _____ the last time we saw her.
13. This is the most disgusting thing I have _____ tasted!
14. Mike hasn't saved up enough money _____ to buy a house.
15. I've _____ received an email from my boss. He says he wants to see me.
16. The terrorist has been in prison _____ 20 years now.
17. He says he's from Tuvalu. I've _____ even heard of that place!
18. Have you _____ heard this song? It's really cool.
19. I've _____ been skiing before, and at this point I don't think I ever will.
20. I've _____ given you this information three times. Stop asking me!
21. Betty has been brokenhearted _____ her goldfish died.
22. It's noon and you _____ haven't made your bed. You're a slob!
23. That's the stupidest thing I've _____ heard!
24. Debbie has _____ found out that she's going to be given an award.
25. The Iberian Peninsula has been inhabited _____ 35 thousand years.

