Exxercise 2

Nisa's picnic

Nisa took(1) her sister for a walk to find the frogs. (2)They walked up a path in the jungle to a small open area. Nisa stopped and listened. "See," (3)she said to her sister. "The frogs are nearby. (4)I can hear (5)them croaking." The two girls looked up and saw a frog sitting on the trunk of a tree next to the path. "(6)I think the frog is saying thank you for picking up your rubbish," said Nisa's sister. "Yes," said Nisa. "So do I." The girls walked back down the path. There was a small stream running next to the path. Sitting on a rock next to the stream was another frog. As Nisa and her sister walked past, it lifted its back leg and waved. "Look!" said Nisa. "This frog is waving goodbye and saying thank you for looking after our habitat." The girls heard a car horn and hurried back to the car. Their father was waiting for them. It was time to go home.
