Listening

" Michelle Obama speech"

This is _____ _____ _____, my first foreign trip ___ ____ ___ _____. Can _____ _____ ____? (Applause) And while this is _____ _____ _____ ____ to the U.K., I have to say that I _____ _____ that this is ____ _____ _____ _____. The special relationship between ____ _____ _____ and the U.K. is based not only on the _____ between _____, but the common language and the values that we share, and _____ _____ of that by watching you all today. During my visit ____ _____ honored to meet some of Britain's _____ _____ _____, women who are paving the way for all of you.

And I'm honored to meet you, the _____ _____ of Great Britain and this world. And although _____ _____ of our lives may seem very distant_____ _____ _____ here as the First Lady of the United States of America, and you, ____ _____ _____ school, I want you to know that we have _____ _____ ___ _____. For nothing in my life's path would have predicted that I'd be standing here as the first African-American First Lady of the United States of America. _____ _____ in my story that would land me here. I wasn't raised _____ _____ or resources or _____ _____ _____ to speak of. I was raised on the _____ _____ ____ _____. That's the real part of Chicago. And I was the product of a working-class community. _____ _____ ____ __ _____ _____ all of his life, and my mother was a _____ _____ _____. And she stayed at home to take care of me and my older brother. _____ ____ _____ attended university. My dad was diagnosed with _____ _____ in the prime of his life. But even as it got _____ _____ _____ to walk and get dressed in the morning -- I _____ _____ _____ more and more -- my father _____ _____ about his struggle. He was _____ _____ _____ ____ _____. He just woke up a little earlier and worked ___ _____ _____. And my brother and I were raised with all that you really need: love, _____ _____ and a belief that with a _____ _____ and a whole lot of hard work, that there was nothing that we _____ _____ _____

I ____ ____ _____ of what's possible when girls from the _____ _____ of their lives are loved and nurtured by the people around them. I was _____ _____ _____ _____ in my life: _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, who taught me about quiet strength and dignity. And my mother, the most important role model in my life, who lives with us at the White House and helps to care for our ____ _____ _____, Malia and Sasha. She's an active presence in their lives, ____ _____ as _____, and is instilling in them ____ _____ _____ that she taught me and my brother: things like compassion, ____ _____ _____ _____, and perseverance -- all of that wrapped up in an unconditional love that only a _____ _____ _____.

American Passport

LIVEWORKSHEETS