Hi, I'm Ben. I got a new camera for my birthday and last weekend I went out and took photos of some of my friends. I went to see Amy on Saturday morning. She likes exciting sports and she took me sailing. I didn't really enjoy it because I got sick.

I went to see my friend Alex in the afternoon. In this photo, he's making a milkshake for us. He made us dinner, too. He's really good at cooking.

My friend Sam isn't very adventurous. Last Sunday he read comics about aliens all day. I saw him in the morning and I took this photo of him.

Look – here's a photo of Reem. She's learning how to be a clown I went to the circus last Sunday afternoon to watch her. She's really funny! What did you and your friends do last weekend?
