Apologizing or Saying Sorry

A. Past and future tense of the verbs:

Present	Past	Future	Present	Past	Future
take			give
break			forget
lose			clean
come			damage

B. Write down ways you can apologize in English:

C. When we apologize, we say what we did wrong. What can you say in the situations below?

When you break a friend's mug... 	When you take someone's phone...
I broke your mug.
When you damage a car... 	When you miss a meeting...

When you don't clean up... 	When you lose a classmate's pen...
When you miss an appointment... 	When you didn't call...

After we apologize, we say how we will fix the mistake. We use the simple present. Choose which answer is correct.

Click and Drag.

I will give you my phone number.	I will get you a new one.
I'll clean it up right now.	I'll give them to you now.
I will get the notes from Sara.	I will come over tonight.
