Could you do us a favour?

The Robot family had been on Planet Earth for almost one year. They needed to go home. There was a problem: Robby and Bobbie's spaceship was still broken. Roger couldn't find a new GPS to replace the one that Robby had broken. Tan suggested using one from Planet Earth, but Roger explained that it wouldn't work. "Ours are special. We fly through galaxies. They help us travel through thick clouds. Our lights aren't bright enough." The family needed to find another solution.

Rosie and Roger asked Tan and Awe if Bobbie and Robby could stay on Planet Earth. Bobbie and Robby really liked this idea. Awe and Tan were happy to have them stay until their spaceship could be fixed.

And so all of the guests (except Bobbie and Robby) from Planet Braincloud piled into the spaceship. Everyone waved goodbye. But wait; there was an extra someone in the spaceship! Noi was in big trouble this time!
