1 Read about the three people in the photos. What are their goals and achievements?

1 Philip (PJ) Foster, eighteen, has wanted to compete in the Ironman event in his home state of Hawaii since he was thirteen. Competitors swim four kilometres, cycle 180 kilometres and run forty-two kilometres, all without a break. PJ is currently training for this year's race and hopes to become one of the youngest competitors ever to cross the finishing line.

2 Amy Hur, fifteen, is Korean but she lives near London. She has been playing the piano and the cello since she was six and she passed top level exams in both at the age of eleven. She practises for several hours every day.

3 Some people say that beauty is in the eye of the beholder but for Carolina Carrizo, nineteen, from Venezuela, it is all about hard work. Beauty queen Carolina has recently won a place at the Miss Venezuela School in Caracas, where they 'aim to make every girl perfect'.
