Macbeth: Act 3

Number these events

- [ ] Banquo's ghost turns up at the banquet and sits in Macbeth's chair.
- [ ] Lady Macbeth explains that her husband suffers from a minor disease.
- [ ] Hecate scolds the Three Witches for acting without her approval.
- [ ] Banquo is killed but Fleance escapes.
- [ ] Macbeth speaks out wildly at an empty chair.
- [ ] The ghost leaves and reappears, causing the same fury in Macbeth.
- [ ] Macbeth invites Banquo and his son, Fleance, to a banquet.
- [ ] Hecate commands they make sure Macbeth feels safe.
- [ ] Macbeth's guests are shocked by Macbeth's reaction, as they can't see the ghost.
- [ ] Banquo and Fleance are attacked on their way to Macbeth's castle.
- [ ] Lady Macbeth asks the guests to leave.
- [ ] Macbeth fears his power is at risk if an heir of Banquo is alive.

LIVEWORKSHEETS