

☐ Encadre le verbe après mustn't, must ou can pour vérifier que tu ne l'as pas oublié.

4 Relis le dialogue p. 124 de ton livre et complète ce résumé.

Crookie is fat and must weight.
 Max give him biscuits or chocolate, but he give him bones. Crookie must go to the park
 He mustn't TV all day.

5 Deux petites filles s'amuse à essayer de vieux habits trouvés dans une malle, dans le grenier de leur grand-mère. Complète leur dialogue en te servant de very et too.

This sweatshirt is very big.

This sweatshirt is too big for him.

Lynn: I love this hat! But I can't see! Where are you?

Terry: Ha! Ha! It's big for you! Oh! What's this? A dress?

Lynn: Wow! An evening dress! It is beautiful.

Terry: Oh no! It's long for me.

Lynn: Look at these shoes. They're old! Maybe they are a hundred years old! Well, they're big for me. I can't walk. Help! (Crash!)

Lis la lettre de Dotty et la réponse du vétérinaire, puis complète le mot que Dotty a épinglé au-dessus du coussin de son chat pour bien s'en souvenir avec : must / mustn't / don't / any.

Relis bien le Think about it p. 50-51 n° 1 et 2 avant de commencer.

the vet corner

the vet's answer

Dear Vet,
Beauty, my cat has got a problem. She sleeps all day and doesn't chase mice. What can I do?
Dotty.

Dear Dotty,
Your cat is too fat.
She must lose weight!
Just look at her! Fresh cream and chocolate mice are very bad for her. Give her fish and water. And no biscuits! Your cat definitely needs exercise and fresh air. Go and play ball with her in the garden. Cats like playing.

• Beauty drink fresh cream.
she eat biscuits and she (She eat chocolate mice!
..... chase real mice!).
• I give her fish! That's VERY BAD!
I give her fish and water
every morning.
• Beauty needs exercise so I play
with her in the garden every day:
she sleep in the house all day!