

PHẦN 11: KẾT HỢP CÂU

Chọn câu đồng nghĩa hoặc cận nghĩa nhất với cặp câu đã cho trong câu hỏi. (51-55)

51. It is not a good idea to set Alex such a challenging task. The boy is too young and inexperienced and I am afraid he might fail at it.
- A. If Alex is assigned such a demanding task, he might be vulnerable to his inexperience and youth, which is not a good idea.
 - B. Whoever assigns Alex such an ambitious mission must be undeniably inexperienced and green.
 - C. Entrusting such a demanding task to Alex is insensible because he is still wet behind the ears and very likely to bungle it.
 - D. Although it's not a good idea, Alex will be chosen to conduct such a challenging mission, because it is that he can learn from his inexperience and youth.
52. In my opinion, it is unwise of the manager to insist on buying the plant. He is just wasting more money if he buys such an obsolete object.
- A. I could see the manager overcame all of the oppositions about the purchase of that antiquated machinery to confirm they was unwise and wasted their money.
 - B. The manager's persistence in purchasing such an outdated plant is like throwing good money after bad and therefore seems completely irrational to me.
 - C. The manager saved the obsolete plant from wasting money although he was said to be ill-advised at first.
 - D. The executive was stubborn to pay for the old machinery and bowed the expense which was prudent to me.
53. He's never been sympathetic towards us. That's why I think even his best wishes to us always sounds insincere.
- A. What with his never having been truthful towards us, even his best wishes always ring hollow.
 - B. As he's never been acquiescent to any of us, I don't believe even his most sincere longings.
 - C. The reason why I'm always skeptical to his wishes for us is his over-sympathy to us.
 - D. He's never been realized for being sympathetic because even his best wishes to us was unbelievable.
54. He's never had to worry about his social status. He was born into a rich family.
- A. The apple doesn't fall far from the tree, so he surely doesn't have to worry about his affluent family.
 - B. He was well-heeled for the whole life thanks to his rich family and their social status.
 - C. Being a successor of a supreme family, he social status was desired by most other rich people in the country.

D. Born with a silver spoon in his mouth, he's never had to spare a thought for his social status.

55. Foreign visitors were warned to keep away from that district. Robberies and assaults are widespread there.

A. Foreign visitors are warned to steer clear of the districts where robberies and assaults are rife.

B. Social crimes was the reason why exotic travelers was banned from entering the district.

C. Those who were previously convicted of robberies and assaults were warned to stay away from the district.

D. Violent attackers and robbers were boycotted from the district due to the serious consequences of their crimes on foreign holidaymakers.

PHẦN 12: HOÀN THÀNH VĂN BẢN

Chọn 01 cụm từ hoặc câu trong 04 lựa chọn cho sẵn trong mỗi câu hỏi để điền vào chỗ trống tương ứng trong bài luận đã cho. (56-60)

Going global - the solution or the problem?

For better or worse, the world is becoming a smaller place. National markets have grown closer together, (56) _____. Companies now operate all over the world and aim their products particularly at young people. In my country, many young people have access to the Internet, they watch foreign films on satellite TV and they listen to foreign music. In the evenings, they eat in restaurants owned by foreign companies and speak to their friends abroad on their mobile phones.

(57) _____ There is more choice in the shops, goods are more stylish than they were before, living standards have gone up, and we can travel anywhere in the world. They also believe we have greater freedom of information and a better understanding of foreign cultures.

(58) _____, some young people in my country see the situation very differently. (59) _____ They say that mass tourism is ruining our natural heritage, and that the spread of English is destroying our national language. They resent the fact that large international companies, who care mainly about profits, are becoming so important that they have more influence than our own democratically elected government. Some of them take to the streets in protest.

(60) _____ but one thing we can be certain of is that globalization will not go away.

56.

A. therefore national borders become less important.

B. but national borders have become important.

C. and national borders have become less important

D. or national borders have become less important.

57.

- A. Most young people in my country say that "globalization" is a good thing.
- B. Hardly anyone in my country thinks that "globalization" is a good thing.
- C. "Globalization" is happening in my country and that brings about many problems.
- D. "Globalization" is happening in every corner of the world and brings about many problems.

58.

- A. However
- B. In addition
- C. Meanwhile
- D. Obviously

59.

- A. They are under the impression that our culture and local identity needs to be spread over the world.
- B. They feel that our traditional way of life and our local identity are under threat.
- C. They argue that our traditional way of life and our local identity are causing many hindrances to the development of tourism.
- D. They consider our culture and local identity are the only things we need to conserve 60.

- A. So the drawbacks clearly outweigh the benefits,
- B. Clearly there are arguments on both sides,
- C. Although there are many more advantages than disadvantages,
- D. Despite those minus points,

PHẦN 13: TỰ LUẬN

61. Viết một văn bản khoảng 250 từ về chủ đề sau:

Raising a pet can be beneficial to a teenager in many ways. What is your opinion of this matter?

--- HẾT ---