1. The moon which appears larger on the horizon than it does overhead is merely an optical illusion.

2. Which answer best rewrites the following correctly written sentence?

Because the bridge has been retrofitted, it can withstand an 8.0 or weaker earthquake with little or no damage.
A. Because the bridge has been retrofitted, so it can withstand an 8.0 or weaker earthquake with little or no damage.

B. Having been retrofitted, the bridge can withstand an 8.0 or weaker earthquake with little or no damage.

C. The bridge has been retrofitted, therefore, it can withstand an 8.0 or weaker earthquake with little or no damage.

D. The bridge which has been retrofitted it can withstand an 8.0 or weaker earthquake with little or no damage.

3. To help us complete the required course material by the end of the term, our professor assigned us several homeworks.

4. When explaining why the United States lost its neutral status and entered World War II, the professor illustrated this criteria as being important factors.

5. Administrators at the college learned about the students paid online web sites to write their papers in Professor Jones expository writing class.

6. Most meetings scheduled by the coach well before the first basketball game so that all the athletes will know what will be expected of them.

7. Having competently control with delivery, language-use, and topic development, Lata scored perfectly on the speaking section of the TOEFL iBT.

8. Human activities such as auto and factory emissions are polluting our atmosphere, however, these so-called greenhouse gases are causing our climate to warm.

9. Although my friend, whom I admire greatly due to his engaging personality and natural witty humor, is not planning on becoming a pharmacist inasmuch as he does not want to be in college that long.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

A. Complete

B. Incomplete

10. It is estimated that a scientific principle has a life expectancy of approximately a decade before it drastically revised or replaced by newer information.

11. To take pride in what deserves boasting is one thing, and to take good care of it is quite another.

12. Why is a man in civil life perpetually slandering and backbiting his fellow man, and is unable to see good even in his friends.

13. Humans develop normally twenty primary, or deciduous, teeth and thirty-two permanent ones.

14. When the boulders are made of rock that is different from the bedrock which they or the soil of the field rests, they are gold erratics.

15. It would be difficult for a man of his political affiliation, even with jam and so capable, to become a senator from the south.

16. a politician can make a legislative proposal more to understand by giving specific examples of what its effect will be.

17. Many of the recording instruments used in vary branches of science are kymographs.

18. Temperature indicates on bimetallic thermometer by the amount that the bimetallic strip bends.

19. Studies of carcinogenesis in animals can provide data on differences have in human susceptibility.

20. Certain authorities claim that the costumes that people wear to parties they give subtle insights into their personalities.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS