Match the beginnings with the endings:

HISTORY OF CONSTITUTION OF UKRAINE

The Constitution of Ukraine is	the Constitutional Court of Ukraine.
The right to amend the Constitution through a special legislative procedure is vested	by hetman Pylyp Orlyk in 1710.
The only body that may determine whether legislation conforms to the Constitution is	the basic economic, social, cultural, public and political rights to the citizens of Ukraine.
The first Constitution of Ukraine was written	a republic.
According to a ruling of the Constitutional Court, current Constitution took force	exclusively with the parliament.
The Constitution guarantees	a sovereign, democratic, social and juridical state.
According to the Constitution Ukraine is	the greatest social value in Ukraine.
The form of state government is	through democratic elections by state government bodies and self-government institutions.
The power belonging to the people of Ukraine is exercised	at the moment when the results of the parliamentary vote were announced, i.e. June 28, 1996.
People are proclaimed	the main formal document of our country.