Macbeth: Act 4

Choose the correct option.

Macbeth, _____, visits the three witches once more and asks them to reveal the _____ of their prophecies to him. To answer his questions, they _____ horrible apparitions, each of which offers predictions and _____ prophecies to put Macbeth's fears at rest. First, they conjure an _____ head, which tells him to _____ of Macduff. Second, a bloody child tells him that no one born of a woman will be able to harm him. Thirdly, a _____ child holding a tree states that Macbeth will be safe until Great Birnam Wood comes to Dunsinane Hill. Macbeth is _____ and feels secure because he knows that all men are born of women and forests cannot possibly move.

Macbeth also asks whether Banquo's sons will ever _____ in Scotland, to which the witches conjure a procession of eight crowned kings, all similar in appearance to Banquo, and the last carrying a mirror that reflects even more kings. Macbeth realises that these are all Banquo's descendants having _____ kingship in numerous countries.

After the witches perform a mad dance and leave, Lennox enters and tells Macbeth that Macduff has _____ to England. Macbeth orders Macduff's castle be _____, and, most cruelly, sends murderers to_____ Macduff, as well as Macduff's wife and children. Although Macduff is no longer in the castle, everyone in Macduff's castle is put to death, including Lady Macduff and their young son.
