Our lives are filled with ups and downs andevents. Two weeks ago, my friend - Reem- and I had ain my house yard. It was a quite dark night, the weather was foggy .

I fixed the tent and lit a bonfire to roast marshmallows. My sister made some snacks. Everything was perfect as planned. Reem and I were in our sleeping bags eating pizza. Suddenly, we heard sounds. I thought it was the wind. Later, a nasty strong smell filled the air. So, we got out of the tent, but the smell got worst.

All at once, I heard Reem loudly, so I ran to see what was wrong. To my surprise, I saw a dead rotten animal stuck in my neighbor's fence, when I got closer, I found out it was my favorite dog. I felt scared and..... . I immediately called 999 for help. Minutes later, the neighborhood was glowing with red and blue lights.

Apparently, my two weeks missing dog was trying to runaway, but it got stuck in the fence and died. I will never forget that day.
