

PHRASAL VERBS- RELATIONSHIPS

I Match the verbs with the definition

1 get on ____	A argue with someone
2 go out ____	B have a good relationship
3 fall out ____	C have a romantic relationship
4. fall for ____	D forgive and resume a relationship
5 split up ____	E develop romantic feelings for
6 make up ____	F accept something that is not the best option
7 get back together ____	G end a relationship
8. settle down ____	H loose a close relationship gradually
9 settle for ____	I start living in a place with your partner
10 bring up ____	J enter into a relationship and harm it
11. look up to ____	K restart a relationship after having ended it
12 take after ____	L respect
13 grow apart ____	M resemble
14 come between ____	N look after children until they become adults

II Read the sentences and circle the correct form of the verb.

- My brother and Ivery well.
A get us on B get on C both are correct
- John and Jenny for a year now.
A have been going out B have been going them out C both are correct
- I with Gina so I don't see her anymore.
A fell her out B fell out C both are correct
- Tom really his boss. What a mess.
A fell for B fell for it C both are correct
- Brad and Angela a few years ago.
A split up B split it up C both are correct
- It looks like Bob and Anna
A have made up B have made it up C both are correct
- Do you think Ben and Jen?
A will get back together B will get it back together C both are correct
- He's a confirmed bachelor. He
A will never settle down B will settle down never C both are correct
- Don't someone like him. He's not worth it.
A settle it for B settle for C both are correct
- I in a very strict household.
A was brought up B was brought it up C both are correct
- Everyone in my family granddad.
A looks to up B looks up to C both are correct
- Do you think Kiefer his father?
A takes after B takes it after C both are correct
- After university, we for some reason.
A grew apart it B grew apart C both are correct
- We will never let money
A come us between B come between us C both are correct

