

TRANSPORTATION THROUGH AGES

NUMBER THE EVENTS IN ORDER.

The next logical step from wheel was the invention of the cart and chariot. _____

Some carriages called phaetons were built for speed and racing. _____

Karl Benz produced cars with combustion engines. _____

Henry Ford started the car assembly line in 1913. _____

Coaches originated in Hungary in the 1400 -1500. _____

Before the invention of the wheel people had to walk or ride on animals back from place to place. _____ 1 _____

The mass production of automobiles began in the United States. _____

The next step was the invention of vehicles that ran with engines. _____

In Ancient Rome, chariot racing was popular. _____

Humans realized that heavy objects could be moved easily if something if something round was placed under a fallen log. _____