1. Classify these animals. Write their names in the boxes.

Bird	Mammal	Amphibian	Reptile	Fish

2. Which of these animals are oviparous? Choose.

A. Mammals B. Birds C. Fish D. Reptiles

3. Write True (T) or False (F).

- A fox is an aquatic animal. ☐
- A lion lives in the savannah. ☐
- A shark is an aquatic animal and lives in the sea. ☐

4. Read and complete. Use this words to complete: terrestrial, habitat.

A _____ is where plants and animals live, grow and reproduce. It can be _____ or aquatic.

5. Label the pictures with the names of the habitats.

6. Read and complete. Use the words in the box.

lakes, marine, aquatic, freshwater, oceans

..... habitats are dominated by water. Depending on the quantity of salt in the water, they can be ..... habitats or marine habitats. Rivers and ..... are freshwater habitats. ..... and seas are ..... habitats.

7. Read and match.

Gills •	• The fish uses these for swimming.
Fins •	• The fish uses these for breathing.
Scales •	• Fish have these on their bodies.

8. Read the sentences. Choose the correct option.

- Hot deserts are cold and wet / large and dry places.
- In hot deserts many animals are active at night / during the day.
- Cold deserts have snow / are sandy.

9. Classify these animals. Write their names in the boxes.

Cold desert	Hot desert

10. How do animals adapt to their environment? Read and match.

giraffe

Regulating temperature •

Getting food •

dromedary

Hiding from predators •

chameleon

11. Choose the characteristics of rainforests.

A. They are warm.

B. They have a lot of rain.

C. There is a lot of grass, but there are not lot of trees.

12. Write True (T) or False (F).

- Herbivores feed on animals. ☐
- Omnivores feed on plants and animals. ☐
- Carnivores feed on other animals. ☐

13. Which of these animals live in the savannah? Choose.

A.

B.

C.