1. Multiple Choices

For questions number 1 to 4

It was early in the morning when five staff of the charity International Animal Rescue (IAR) arrived at the forest. The forest was hazy with smoke. They breathed through cloth masks as they searched for a dehydrated-and possibly dying-orangutan and her infant seen the previous night. A farmer reported seeing the mother and daughter orangutans near a palm oil farm which was on fire.

After several hours searching through the haze, they finally found the pair. They used anesthetics and medical check-ups to determine if the two orangutans could survive in a safe zone away from the fires. These orangutans were lucky because IAR got them before the smoke caused too much damage. The team took them to a safe zone on the island.

1. What does the second paragraph tell us about?
 - A. The discovery of the two orangutans.
 - B. The anaesthetized orangutans.
 - C. The missing orangutans.
 - D. The IAR sanctuary.
2. What might have happened if IAR had not come to rescue the orangutans?
 - A. The haze would be thicker.
 - B. The two orangutans would be dead.
 - C. The people would take care of the two orangutans.

D. The two orangutans would escape to a safe zone.

For question number 5 to 7

It was nine in the evening, I was on my way to my bedroom after brushing my teeth. As I was passing the living room, I saw my brother, Aldo, lying on the floor watching TV. He always did that every night. He refused to go to bed and chose to sleep in front of the television. I decided not to say anything and directly went to bed.

I was half asleep when I heard a scream from the living room. It was about two in the morning. I jumped out of bed and rushed towards the voice. In the living room, I found Aldo crying. His right hand was on his right ear. He said, "Help, help, help. It hurts" Then, he told me that an insect had entered his ear. I was quite sorry for the insect. I figured out it was an ant. I imagined how miserable the ant was. Since Aldo couldn't stop crying, I decided to take him to the hospital. Soon after cur arrival, a doctor in charge examined Aldo's ear. He, then, used a pair of pincers to take the insect out. I was so surprised to see the insect. It wasn't an ant. It was a young cockroach Gosh! It was as big as a baby's little finger.

From then on, Aldo never slept in front of the television any more.

For question number 8 to 10

The holidays had come. At first, I didn't know how to spend my long holiday I didn't have any plans because my parents were very busy. My father was finishing his project, while my mother was taking care of my little sister. She was just five months old.

Fortunately, one of my friends, Zaky, didn't have any plans either. So we spent the holiday together. During the holiday, he came to my house almost every day.

We did a lot of things. On the first day, we rode a bicycle and went around the city. We stopped at some shops and enjoyed window-shopping. The second day, I taught Zaky how to play basketball. We spent three days just to get him able to shoot well. In the last two days, we visited museums. in our city; they were Ronggowarsito and Mandala Bakti We learnt a lot from the collections in the museums.
