The Bees

The bees live in a big family. There are many bees in the family. We cannot count them. The bee family is called a swarm. The swarm lives in the hive. The hive hangs on a tree. Each swarm has a mother bee. She is called the queen bee. She is the mother of all the bees in the swarm. There are two kinds of bees. The busy bees are called workers. The lazy bees are called drones. The workers do not like the drones. They sting the lazy drones. The workers gather nectar from flowers. They put the nectar in the hive. The bees make the nectar into honey. Honey is sweet. It is the food of the young bees.

There Is Something Beautiful in Us

Once upon a time, there lived two friends. One was a monkey and the other one was a peacock. The monkey envied the peacock because he was very beautiful.

One day, while there we walking in the forest, the monkey looked at the peacock and said, "Peacock, how come you're so beautiful? I think you have everything. You've got slender feet, beautiful tail feathers that opens up like a fan and a beautiful comb on your head. “

The boastful peacock answered, “Well that's what I really am. Many animals here in the forest envy me. Every my wife the peahen envies me. She is not as good looking as I am. She does not have pretty tail feathers.”

The monkey became sadder and pitied himself for being ugly. Then suddenly, a little bird saw him and said, “Monkey why are you sad?” she asked.

“It's how I look that makes me sad,” he answered. It seems that peacock has everything,” he said.

One early morning, while the monkey and the peacock were walking, some wild animals came to attack them. The two friends were so scared. The monkey climbed a tall tree while the peacock was left on the ground.

The monkey saw how the animals attacked the peacock until he died. The monkey found out at the end that he had something which the peacock did not have. He was happy that could climb trees. “This is one gift I have that is very beautiful,” he said.
