

Lulu Hypermarket is one of the best international supermarkets in the world which has many branches all around the Bahrain. All branches open at 8:00 in the morning to 12:00 at night.

Lulu Hypermarket is a great place to for daily and weekly shopping because it has two floors and so many sections and aisles. On the first floor, you can find all types of food frozen and fresh. Also, there are beauty and hygiene products. What's more, it has its own baker's and butcher's.

On the second floor, you can find clothes, furniture, antiques and electronics. All of these are under one roof which makes it easier for shoppers to do all their shopping at the same time.

One of the most impressive sections is the electronic sections, because I can find great deals and offers on special things.

Lulu Hypermarket is a great place for shopping that has a variety of products from all around the world at reasonable prices.
