

Crime

1) How observant are you? Watch the video.

2) Listen to the radio programme and choose the correct answer

Doreen thinks criminals should not live in such good conditions.

- a) True
- b) False
- c) Not given

Doreen is against of free dance classes for prisoners.

- a) Not given
- b) True
- c) False

Doreen is against of making inmates work.

- a) Not given
- b) True
- c) False

According to Doreen's opinion, the kind of criminals' work depends on the crime they have committed.

- a) False
- b) Not given
- c) True

Gary supports Doreen's idea.

- a) True
- b) Not given
- c) False

Nigel supports Doreen's idea.

- a) False
- b) True
- c) Not given

Nigel: We should pay more attention to prisoner's rehabilitation than punishments.

- a) True
- b) Not given
- c) False

Nigel: In prison, professional criminals can influence young offenders.

- a) False
- b) True
- c) Not given

Nigel: We can decrease the crime level in our society.

- a) Not given
- b) False
- c) True

3) Match the idiom and its meaning

To get caught red handed	to have trouble with the law
to snatch/to snatch on (someone)	to stay out of trouble (often with the law)
to turn oneself in	to strictly follow the established rules, laws, or procedures
White-collar crime	to reveal the truth about something that has been kept secret. We often use this expression to talk about legal confessions to keep one's nose clean	to be caught in the act of committing a crime or breaking a rule to come clean	to inform on someone (usually to the police). The word has a negative connotation. We can also use snitch as a noun as a pejorative term for an informant.
to have a run-in with the law	to surrender to authorities

to do something by the book

non-violent financial crime committed by high-ranking members of government or business