Test "Shopping"

Listen to the story and write if the statements are true (T) or false (F)

1) The street isn't very long.
2) There are not many trees in it.
3) There is a baker's shop and a fishmonger's in the street.
4) The supermarket is next to Jahn's house.
5) There are family houses and small blocks of flats in Jahn's street.

Fill in the gaps with "much", "many", "is" or "are"

How ... sugar do you need for your tea?
There ... chocolate in this ice cream.
There ... five bottles of mineral water in the fridge.
How ... cups of coffee are there on the table?

How ... is this dress?
How ... are these jeans?
How much ... that book?
How much ... those shoes?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Choose the right answer and fill in the letter

1. What do we call people who sell goods?

a) shop-assistant b) customer c) manager

2. What do we call people who buy goods?

a) cashier b) customer c) designer

3. Where can we buy shoes?

a) butcher's b) souvenirs c) footwear

4. Where can we buy apples?

a) souvenirs b) greengrocer's c) dairy's

5. Where can we buy fish?

a) fishmonger's b) grocer's c) newsagent's

6. Where can we pay for goods?

a) cash desk b) fitting room c) dining room

7. Which shop is the biggest?

a) shop b) department store c) newsagent's

8. Who shows the fashionable clothes?

a) designer b) customer c) model

9. Who makes new clothes?

a) dressmaker b) model c) designer

10. What clothes can you wear in rainy weather?

a) tracksuit b) raincoat c) jeans and sweater

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the text choosing the correct degree of comparison of each adjective

The market is close / closer / the closest to the Stone's house than supermarket. Mrs Stone thinks the market is good / better / the best than the supermarket. Fruit and vegetables there are fresh / fresher / the freshest than vegetables and fruit in the supermarket. They are also cheap / cheaper / the cheapest than the ones in the shops. Mrs Stone thinks the market is exciting / more exciting / the most exciting place in her city. It's colourful / more colourful / the most colourful than the shops in the High Street. She thinks the market is good / better / the best place to shop in the city.

LIVEWORKSHEETS