

The European Union (again)

What is the difference between the euro € and the Single market?

- a) The euro is notes and coins, the single market shows how expensive things are.
- b) The euro is the currency and the Single market is the trade between EU countries.
- c) The euro is the money used in the single market.
- d) The euro shows how expensive something is, the Single market is a shop.

What could be some reasons why people emigrate from their country to another EU country?

What is the difference between an import and an export?

- f) Import is when goods enter a country, export is when goods leave a country.
- g) Import is when goods leave a country, export is when goods enter a country.
- h) Import is when people trade with another country.
- i) Export is when businesses make money.

Select the odd one out.

a) EEC	Spain	1957	Treaty of Rome
b) 1993	EU	2002	Maastricht Treaty
c) tourism	transport	textiles	trade
d) Luxembourg City	Paris	Brussels	Strasbourg

5 Decide if the sentences are true or false. Correct the false sentences. (write) T = True or F = False a EU citizens have the right to healthcare in other EU member states.

b Countries that are not part of the EU pay more taxes to import and export goods within the EU.

c The euro sign, €, is based on a Latin letter.

d There are some EU countries that do not use the euro.

e About 74 per cent of the European population works in the secondary sector.
