

SING

DIRECTIONS: Put the words on the right in their corresponding places.

Koala Buster Moon owns a struggling _____, and is facing money problems. He decides to hold a _____ competition with a prize of $1,000, but his lizard assistant Miss Crawly adds by _____ two extra zeros to the prize _____. The misprinted flyers are blown out of the _____ by a fan before they can be proofread, and float across the city.

Crowds of animals gather to audition, and Buster selects his _____. These include housewife and mother of 25 _____ Rosita, paired with an exuberant pig named Gunter for a dance routine; punk-rock porcupine Ash; _____ gorilla Johnny, son of gangster Big Daddy; street _____ mouse Mike; a trio of dancing frogs; and opera singer camel Pete. Teenager Meena fails her audition from stage _____. After Buster discovers the flyers advertise a prize of $100,000, he joins his friend Eddie on a visit to Eddie's wealthy _____, singing star Nana Noodleman. Nana is reluctant to sponsor the prize money, but agrees to _____ a private preview of the show before making a decision.

Pressured by her grandfather, Meena tries to ask Buster for another _____, but becomes his stage hand instead. When the frog trio _____ up and Pete is injured, Meena is _____ as an act. Meanwhile, Mike, assuming that the prize money is his, buys a _____ car and swindles a group of Russian bears in a _____ game.

On the day of the preview, the bears _____ the show, demanding the money from Mike, who directs them to Buster. The bears open the prize _____, but it is nowhere near $100,000. The glass tank of _____ squids lighting the stage breaks under the bears's weight, and the theatre _____ and breaks down. Judith, from the bank, repossesses the place and Buster takes up residence with Eddie. The contestants try to _____ him up, but Buster is too _____ to listen and tries to start over by opening a car wash.

When Meena goes to the rubble of the theatre and sings a song on her _____, Buster overhears her and is inspired to stage an _____ show just for the fun of it.

Rosita and Gunter _____ their song-and-dance combo, which finally prompts Rosita's husband, Norman, to notice her talent. Dozens more animals are drawn to the scene as the _____ is broadcast on the _____. Johnny's performance greatly impresses his father, who escapes from prison to reconcile with him and _____. Ash sings her _____ rock song "Set It All Free," impressing Lance, who was watching her on TV. Mike, who had initially refused to perform for free, is taunted into returning and gives a stunning performance but is found and _____ away by the bears afterwards. Finally, Meena overcomes her stage fright and delivers a performance which _____ brings down the house.

The show is a _____ and impresses Nana, who was in the audience. She buys the place, and the theatre is _____ and reopened.

window theatre
money
accident singing

contestants piglets
teenage musician
fright
attend grandmother

fancy added
card
breaks chance

chest luminescent
depressed cheer
floods interrupt

outdoor headphones

chased original
news
perform literally
apologize show

rebuilt success

The moral of the movie.....

What we learn from this film is that parents will love us unconditionally and to follow our dreams. All the contestants have formed a bond, they want each other to succeed, they encourage one another as a team, they see themselves as winners.

DIRECTIONS: On the sentences above, click on all the verbs you see. Then, conjugate the verbs follow and see with the indicated pronouns.

FOLLOW With the pronoun SHE	Simple	Progressive	Perfect
Past
Present
Future

SEE With the pronoun YOU	Simple	Progressive	Perfect
Past
Present
Future

