▶ 73 Listen to an extract from a radio programme that discusses what's in the news. Tick the examples of impulse buying which are mentioned.

1 Buying loads of things when you only need bread or milk.
2 Buying things you can't afford to buy.
3 Buying things online.
4 Spending too much when you're hungry.

▶ 73 Listen to the extract again. Correct factual errors in four of the sentences.

1 Samira has written articles on impulse buying.
2 Most of us have spent more than £500 on a purchase that wasn't necessary!
3 You never see special offers on TVs or tablets.
4 You should always have a budget when you need to buy expensive things.
5 Many women, but few men, use shopping as a way of managing their money.
6 If you make a list, you can avoid impulse buying.

LIVEWORKSHEETS