Track 35

Tour guide: Welcome to San Fernando City Tours. I'm Mark, your [1.] We have a lot to see in three hours, so make sure you're comfortable! We'll be travelling into the historical district first, and then into the [2.] After that, it's out to the [3.] and we'll finish up at the lighthouse, just past the harbour. That will take us up to midday, and after that, you're free to do what you want. At the lighthouse you'll have a chance to visit the tea room and take [4.] of the [5.] coastline. Now, as we have only three hours, we won't be able to take you round the [6.] but we think you'd prefer to look around the shops there in your own time, anyway.

San Fernando has some well-known tourist attractions – the lighthouse for example, and the National Library. However, the little-known [7.] is not to be missed. Be sure to visit before you leave!

Now, there's a lot to do in San Fernando. Indeed, there really is something for everyone! For those who love the water, I can recommend a trip on the Seafarer, one of the most famous boats on the San Fernando River. It does an evening trip with a [8.] meal included. It's great fun for everyone, but especially for young people in their teens or twenties – after nine there's a disco on the boat and it gets really lively! Then there's a climbing wall near the town centre. It's incredibly popular, with a large wall for expert climbers, and a smaller wall for [9.]. There's also a junior wall and a crèche, so it's a great day out for those of you with kids. And if you like walking, there are some great walking tours. The City Sights Tour is highly recommended, as is the walking tour by the coast. But that one's only for the fit, not really suitable for children or the [10.]y. For more mature people or those less able to get around, I would suggest a tour around the vineyards. It can be done in the luxury of a coach, and it's a wonderful way to [11.] the region's wines.

Tour guide: Naturally, there's a charge for all these [12.] but you can get fifteen per cent off if you have an Explorer Pass. If you don't have a pass but would like one, the driver here has application [13.] Just ask him for one and fill it out while on the tour. Then you hand it in to the tour office. Normally, it costs $10, but this year it's just $7! When you hand it in, you'll get your picture taken for the card on the spot, and then your card is ready to use! Remember to show it whenever you pay for anything! The [14.] apply not just to [15.] attractions, but some bars and [16.]. Basically, everywhere you see a red explorer [17.]

Ah ... We're coming up to the historical district now ...
