

LESSON 1: PERSPECTIVES

Let's watch
this video first

Scroll down for the questions

Question 1:

What happened in this situation?

- A - the 2 boys were fighting with each other
- B - the 2 boys were having disagreement
- C - the 2 boys had some conflict over their benefits in class
- D - the 2 boys were just young dumb buffaloes

Question 2:

Why didn't they listen to each other?

- A - they think their opinions are right
- B - they didn't put themselves in each other's shoes
- C - they were stubborn and hard-headed
- D - they wanted to prove themselves and didn't want to lose

Question 3:

In your own words, can you explain the teacher's approach toward solving this situation?

Question 4:

They boys would have the unnecessary argument if .....

- A - they listened to each other
- B - they try too see things from each other's perspective
- C - they weren't 2 hard-headed, young, dumb buffaloes
- D - they accept the possibilities that they might be wrong

Sometimes we have disagreements with other people's not because we're right or they're wrong, but because we all forget to look at things from different perspectives or different points of views.

This is called being ONE-SIDED

