Listening comprehension

Mark true sentences:

1. Some people are fighting in the street.
2. The witness's name is Ahmed.
3. He lives at 31 Station Road.
4. There's a pub near his house.
5. Three men ran after another man.
6. The witness can see the offenders.
7. The offenders are white.
8. The offenders are teenagers.
9. The witness is with the victim.
10. The victim is holding his head.

Insert the phrases of the Caller.

Call handler: Police emergency; go ahead, caller.

Call handler: What's your name?

_____

Call handler: What's your address and your number?

_____

Call handler: OK. Thank you, Ali. Can you tell me what's happening?

Call handler: Are the offenders still there?

_____

Call handler: Did you see them clearly?

_____

Call handler: About how old were they?

_____

Call handler: How is the victim? Did you go to his assistance?

Call handler: Did the offenders have a weapon?

_____

Call handler: OK. We'll get somebody out there.

A) I don't know. I didn't see one.
B) 21 Station Road. I'm calling from 07789 59873
C) No. I'm too scared, but now I can see him. He's conscious, but he looks hurt. He's holding his stomach.
D) One was maybe in his thirties and the other maybe a bit older.
E) No, not clearly. I think they were both white.
F) Yes, they are. But they're going now. They're running away.
G) My name's Ali.
H) I can see two men beating another man across the street from my house.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

l) Well, there's a pub at the end of the road. I heard some shouting outside the pub, and then this man came running. There were two other men behind him. He fell in the street and the two men started beating him.

LIVEWORKSHEETS