

Read the Prepare to write box. Then read the letter again and answer the questions.

- 1 What informal phrases for starting and ending a letter does Stuart use? What other features of informal language does he use?
- 2 Why does Stuart say, 'You weren't expecting that were you?'
- 3 Why does he say, 'Having said that ...'?
- 4 He claims that golf is always on Scottish TV. Is this a fact or an opinion?
- 5 Stuart argues that aim of the game is simple. Is this a fact or an opinion?

---

1.-

2.-

3.-

4.-

5.-

3 Choose the correct answers.

<sup>1</sup> There's no question that / It's no surprise that the Murray brothers have raised the profile of tennis in Scotland: tennis is in the news in Scotland every time there's a major international tournament.

<sup>2</sup> Which means that / In spite of this, more people play football (16%) than tennis (2%). <sup>3</sup> I'd say that / Consequently, there are more football pitches than tennis courts.

I love racket sports like squash, badminton and table tennis.

<sup>4</sup> Having said that, / Which means that I like swimming, too. And I live opposite a swimming pool, <sup>5</sup> in spite of that / which means that I go swimming more than I play racket sports. An article in a recent edition of a journal revealed the medical benefits of swimming, and <sup>6</sup> it's estimated that / it seems clear to me that swimming prevents 100,000 deaths every year.