

Career Pathways and Goals

Directions: Drag the words below to the correct definition.

1. College programs designed specifically for individuals with an intellectual or developmental disability .
2. A career focused program that provides training in specific job skills
3. A place where students go after high school to continue their education usually in order to receive a 2-year degree and/or specific job training
4. A series of connected programs and trainings to allow someone to achieve their career goals
5. A place where students go after high school to continue their education, usually provides a 4-year degree

Career Pathways

Inclusive Higher Education Programs

Community College

University

College of Applied Technology

Directions: Choose the correct answer.

1. Obstacle a person faces

Interests	Barrier	Job Skills
-----------	---------	------------

2. Things that a person enjoys

Interests	Barrier	Job Skills
-----------	---------	------------

3. People skills, or soft skills, like negotiating, persuading, and coordinating with coworkers, help people to work well with others.

Interests	Barriers	Job Skills
-----------	----------	------------

Directions: Read each question and identify if the answer will give you information about interests, job skills, or barriers.

1. What kind of learning disability resources does the school offer?
2. What does the career services office offer?
3. What kinds of extracurricular opportunities exist on campus?

Directions: Choose the correct answer

1. A _____ will help you gather information about yourself.

Self assessment	Community College	ExtraCurricular Activities
-----------------	-------------------	----------------------------

2. An _____ decision is a choice made based on what you have learned and know.

Self -advocacy	informed	University
----------------	----------	------------

3. A _____ is someone who shares information about colleges to potential students.

Mom Dad college recruiter

4. A _____ official document received after attending a training program to show the relevant skills learned

Job application certificate resume

5. Personal attributes that allow a person to succeed in work or education (i.e. leadership, problem-solving, work ethic)

Soft Skills Technical Skills

6. Abilities or knowledge used to perform specific tasks

Soft Skills Technical Skills

Identify each of the following as technical skills or soft skills

1. Numerical data energy

Technical Skills Soft Skills

2. Think critically

Technical Skills Soft skills

3. Write computer code

Technical Skills Soft Skills

4. Determined and Persistent

Technical Skills Soft Skills

True or False:

1. The admission requirements are the same for all 5 main types of Post Secondary education options.
2. Students that receive special education services can attend college for free.
3. Some colleges are hard to get to without transportation.
4. All Colleges must provide students with disabilities support services
5. Tuition is an estimate for an amount of money to be spent in a period of time
6. A budget is how much money a college program costs to attend