

Read each sentence and then drag and drop the bolded (dark) words in the correct category for their part of speech.

1. I kicked the ball.
2. She washed her car.
3. My awesome mother is a beautiful woman.
4. The music is too loud.
5. Will the bell ring soon?
6. The grumpy teacher said we need to do our homework.
7. My sad friend just dropped her new iPad, and it shattered.
8. Some students are mean.
9. Also, some teachers are not very nice.
10. Clap your hands when she is finished talking.
11. You should write your name on that small paper.
12. He was told to put his blue phone on his desk.

	Noun: person, place, thing, idea Something you can touch or hold	Adjective: describes what a noun feels , tastes , smells , sounds , or looks like	Verb: action word Something you do with your body
	There should be 14 words.	There should be 10 words.	There should be 13 words.
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.
11.
12.
13.
14.			