

Name: _____

Date: _____

COMPLEX SENTENCE

A. Check either each sentence as dependent clause (write d) or independent clause (write i).

1. Tom gave a new book.
2. While I am sitting.
3. When the morning sunshine comes.
4. She told me about the accident.
5. Although we don't remember.
6. She is a strong woman.
7. David goes to school everyday.
8. If you agree with me.
9. I will tell your mom.
10. Then they kicked the ball.

B. Rewrite these simple sentences as complex sentences using although, because, untill, when.

1. Alfie shouted for help. He was going to crash.

2. Alfie shut his eyes. He was swept into a tunnel.

3. He held on tight. The boat stopped spinning.

4. He kept on padding. He didn't know where he was going.
