King Midas and the Golden Touch

Once upon a time there was a king called Midas. He was extremely fond of gold. Although he had a lot of it, he wanted more. He thought if he had the golden touch, he would be the happiest man in the world. Then and there the wish god granted his wish.

At the break of the day, he jumped out of bed. The moment his feet touched the floor, it turned to gold.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Then he touched his bed, pillow, and couches everything turned into beautiful yellow gold.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

He embraced his daughter in joy but instant the girl turned into gold. Whatever he touched turned into gold.

The King hated his golden touch so much that he sprinkled even the chairs and the tables and everything else that the wish god's gift had turned to gold.

Then he again prayed to the wish god to take away the golden touch. Kind wishes God granted the king's prayer and lifted from him the golden touch. King Midas took the princess again into his lap. She became normal.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Then Midas gave up his greed. He realizes always think very deeply before making choices, each choice you make has its own consequence so, make wise choices.

Moral Of the Story: Don't be greedy in life, be happy with what you have. People who want to get everything all at once usually end up getting nothing in life.

LIVEWORKSHEETS