14.

Listen to two students talking about lectures and seminars at university, and fill the gaps in the summaries below.

Student A

University lectures involve everyone on a course _____ up and receiving information from one of the _____ about a particular topic. Seminars, on the other hand, are _____ group meetings in which students discuss in detail the _____ of ideas that they heard about in a lecture.

Student B

A university timetable will consist of a _____ of lectures and seminars. The number of people in lectures can _____ depending on the course. For my course we have about 400 people in a big lecture _____. The number of people attending a small-group seminar _____ between 10 and 20.

LIVEWORKSHEETS