Beach day

Pam and his family go to the beach every summer. In summer is sunny and hot. They go to Valencia in August. Pam really likes going to the beach. They have breakfast at a quarter past nine. Then, they take the bucket and the shovel and go to the beach at half past ten. When they arrive to the beach, mum puts on sun cream to Pam and her dad, it is very important in order to not to burn your skin. Pam and her dad are making a sandcastle, it is very big and has three towers. Mum likes lying in the shadow and read books. Pam is swimming in the sea, but the water is very cold. When she wears her goggles, she can see fish, crabs and shells in the water. This summer, Pams is going to learn surfing, she likes jumping with the board in the sea. The family goes back for lunch at two o'clock and after that they take a
