VI. READING: Read the pharagraph and answer the questions with NO MORE THAN 3 WORDS.

Vietnam runs on coffee. And coffee shops are found everywhere, especial in modern cities. In Vietnam, coffee is not a simple drink but rather a trend of the local lifestyle. When deciding a café to be their favorite, people do not consider only its drinks and price but also its decoration, atmosphere and location because they often spend their spare time in a coffee shop with their friends to relax or for studying or working.

You can find different types of coffee there - espresso, cappuccino, latte, black coffee, liqueur and some others. Also, some cafés provide many kinds of drinks – with and without-alcohol, such as juice, smoothie and bubble tea. Café menu is rather diverse.

The invisible but most important thing for customers to "fall in love" with a café is the feeling it can bring. Some coffee shops create a relaxed home atmosphere. The interior is cozy and comfortable. Inside the café, customers can observe several small wooden tables without table-cloths, wooden chairs, and nice soft sofas.

Questions:

1. How many things do people consider to decide a café to be their favorite?
2. What do people often go to a café for?
3. How is café menu?
4. What is the most important for people to like a café?
5. How is the interior in some coffee shops?
