

Chapter 5: The Loss of Brunei Territories to the Westerners

Drag the answers from COLUMN C into COLUMN B.

COLUMN A	COLUMN B	COLUMN C
(a) A British adventurer who decided to help Sultan Omar Ali Saifuddin II.		Raja James Brooke 1839 1881 1878 1852 1885 1888
(b) The year when James Brooke decided to help Sultan of Brunei.
(c) James Brooke called himself the _____ of Sarawak.
(d) British North Borneo Company was founded in _____.
(e) In _____ the British government gave the North Borneo Company special permission to create a colony.
(f) Who succeeded Sultan Omar Ali Saifuddin II?
(g) In what year did Sultan Abdul Momin become the Sultan of Brunei?
(h) In _____ Sultan Abdul Momin called for a meeting with his chiefs and made all of them take an oath.		Sultan Abdul Momin Amanat
(i) A promise made by the Sultan of Brunei and chiefs not to give up any more land to foreigners.
(j) The Sultan signed a treaty with Britain in _____ to get Britain to protect Brunei.		