A) CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

- _____ on this street there's a shop which sells flowers.
- Is there _____ who actually enjoyed this film?
- Beth is _____ who has got creative ideas.
- Is there _____ that serves vegetarian food nearby?
- There was _____ in the party. I was all alone there until _____ turned out.

B) COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH THE CORRECT INDEFINITE PRONOUN.

- Did you do _____ at the weekend?
- Is there _____ that you need from the supermarket?
- It's a secret. You mustn't tell _____.
- I know _____ who doesn't have a head.
- I'm a new student at this school, that's why I don't know _____ yet.
- I'm hungry. Let's buy _____ to eat.
- I've always wanted to go _____ tropical, like Brazil.
- I once met _____ who gave up shopping for two months.
- There's _____ at the door. Can you open, please?
- Is there _____ around here where I can buy some water?

C) COMPLETE THE DIALOGUE WITH THE CORRECT INDEFINITE PRONOUNS.

MAD: Are you going somewhere / anywhere nice for your holiday?

JANE: Yeah, my dad's booked a surprise holiday! I hope it's someone / somewhere hot. And I hope it isn't camping. I hate being without a hairdryer. I also need to buy a new phone charger before we go.

MAD: You can borrow my solar one. It can charge a phone and a tablet at the same time.

JANE: Great! I can't do anything / something if I'm offline.

(Two weeks later...)

MAD: You're back! How was it?

JANE: Awful! The weather was great but the air conditioning didn't work so the room was really hot. There wasn't anywhere / anyone to keep cold drinks, not even a mini-fridge. Did you do something / anything nice?

MAD: No, I didn't speak to someone / anyone all week! I'm glad you're back. At least there's something / someone to do things with now!
