Online holidays

Technology has changed the way we do everything, especially when it comes to organizing a summer holiday. You no longer need to go to a travel agency because you can do everything yourself on the internet. Many airlines have websites where you can ¹ book your flight and these companies usually offer extra services, too. If you are worried about losing your possessions, you can often ² _____ from the company you fly with. If the place you are staying in is far from the airport, you might want to ³ _____ to get there. When you have got your flight, you need to ⁴ _____. The best way to do this is to ⁵ _____ for each of the hotels you are interested in. These will give you an idea of the location and quality of the hotel. The internet will also tell you if you need anything special for your trip, like a visa. While it might not be possible to ⁶ _____ online, there are websites that will tell you which documents you need and where to go to get one. The internet has made it much easier to organize a holiday and it has also made it a lot cheaper.

Beautiful Krakow

If you're looking for ¹*anywhere / everywhere / somewhere* interesting to go for your next holiday, why not try Krakow in Poland? The city is more than 750 years old, and ²*anywhere / nowhere / somewhere* in Poland is more historical. The most famous attractions are the Wawel Castle and the beautiful Old Town, with its enormous market place. There isn't ³*anything / nothing / something* more relaxing than sitting in the square, enjoying a cup of coffee. Walking through the narrow streets of the city, you'll find ⁴*anything / everything / something* old, strange or amazing around every corner.

To see ⁵*anything / everything / nothing* in the city you need to spend at least a week there, but you should choose your time to visit carefully. ⁶*Anybody / Everybody / Somebody* goes to Krakow in the summer, so from June to September, you might not find ⁷*anywhere / everywhere / somewhere* to stay.

⁸*Anyone / No one / Someone* who visits Krakow is disappointed with their holiday.
