Fill in the blanks with "should / must" or "shouldn't / mustn't".

1. My sister ..... go to the post office. She has a postcard to send.
2. The students ..... hurry because they'll miss the school bus.
3. You ..... touch the switch. It's very dangerous.
4. She ..... tidy her room. I think her mother will be angry with her.
5. Mrs. Yaris ..... leave work early. She feels ill.
6. These cakes taste very nice. You ..... eat one.
7. You ..... forget what your father told you. It's really very important.
8. It's twelve o'clock. I'm sorry, I ..... go now.
9. You ..... park here. It isn't permitted.
10. People ..... drive a car until they are 18.
11. I think you ..... study hard.
12. You are gaining weight day by day. You ..... eat so much.
13. He is a very fast driver but I think he ..... drive fast.
14. People ..... speak rudely to others.
15. You have a bad cough. You ..... drink something hot.

Make sentences using "should" or "shouldn't".

1. She / take / an asprin (+)
   She should take an asprin.
2. He / go to / work (–)
   He shouldn't go to work.
3. I / take / painkiller (?)
   Should I take a painkiller?
4. You / study / very hard (+)
5. They / go to / bed / late (–)
6. We / get up / early (?)
7. She /eat / vegetables (+)

LIVEWORKSHEETS