

A FAMOUS PHOTOGRAPHER

Read the text and fill in the blank with the correct form of the word on the left.

The (1) _____ of photographer Bob Willoughby was announced earlier this year in 1953, a then relatively (2) _____ film actress going by the name of Audrey Hepburn arrived back in Hollywood after making the film "Roman Holiday" after a tiring day of (3) _____ shots for the film that would earn her an Oscar, she retired to a studio car where one more photograph was taken to capture her elfin beauty. Now that picture is being offered up for sale in a limited (4) _____ by the estate of the man who took it - Bob Willoughby, whose candid yet (5) _____ images of generations of Hollywood stars made him the photographer of (6) _____ for the big studios. The extent to which the (7) _____ charms of Hepburn retain their appeal was (8) _____.

Last month when all 1,000 copies of a book cataloguing Willoughby's pictures of the star costing £450 each and containing the (9) _____ of the photographer, sold out instantly. Some prints of the star are being sold as part of an exhibition of Willoughby's work in Brussels, the city of Hepburn's (10) _____. Willoughby retired thirty years ago. (11) _____ perhaps, he spent most of his retirement not taking photographs but translating poetry.
