

Part 2: You will hear an announcement about a competition for young composers. For questions 9-18 complete the sentences with a word or a short phrase.

Competition for young composers

Young composers interested in taking part must send in both their personal detail and a (9)

Participants will then attend what's called a workshop, which are led by well-known (10)

On the day, participants must bring their most recent piece of work as well as their (11)

All participants will get help from professional (12) on the day.

In last year's competition, most participants chose music for the (13) as their favourite style.

Participants must submit pieces which are no longer than (14) minutes.

The judges will not be very strict about the (15) the participants might make.

For best results, participants are advised to compose music in their (16)

Schools and colleges will be informed about the winners by (17) if not before.

It is said that each category in the competition will have (18) winners.

