

Extra Training

Listening Conditionals Task 662

1. You will hear four conditional sentences. Tick the sentence that has the information closest to the sentence you have heard.

1.

1. Mary has a lot of work to do.
2. Mary is not very busy.
3. Mary will have lunch with us.

2.

1. I am not going to buy this shirt.
2. The shirt is too big.
3. The shirt is too small

3.

1. I won't stay at home if Mike stays.
2. I will certainly stay at home.
3. Perhaps I will stay at home.

4.

1. We don't have to hurry.
2. The train to Exeter leaves at 10.15.
3. We will miss the train.

1. You will hear four conditional sentences. Tick the sentence that has the information that DOESN'T SUIT to the sentence you have heard.

1.

1. I didn't know they were coming.
2. I didn't buy more food.
3. I knew they were coming.

2.

1. I am not a very good driver.
2. I am a better driver than you.
3. I'm not sure I should go there by car.

3.

1. She has to buy a new carpet.
2. Ann invited few people.
3. Ann organised a big party

4.

1. Paul wrote to his parents.
2. Paul doesn't often write to his parents.
3. Paul still has a lot of money.

