

Extra Training

Listening Task 663

1. You will hear four situations. Tick the sentence that has the information closest to the text you have heard.

1.

1. I bought a book last week.
2. I didn't have lunch at Hellada last week.
3. I don't like Greek food anymore.
4. I will be having dinner at Hellada today.

2. Peter probably

1. doesn't like his company's retirement plan.
2. is going to ask for a pay rise.
3. plans to quit his job.
4. doesn't have the right skills for his job.

3. What is true about the situation?

1. Fewer people come to the centre since they built the cinemas.
2. The cinemas will close after a year.
3. Someone else is going to buy the cinemas.
4. The cinemas were expected to improve business.

4. When I went to look for Tim, I met

1. two people,
2. three people,
3. four people.
4. five people.

1. You will hear an extract from a local news programme. Tick the sentence that has the information closest to the opinion or intentions of the author.

1. It seems that the author

1. never liked the local train.
2. seems sorry to see the train service stop.
3. thinks the train polluted the air.

2. The author implies that

1. farmers are an important part of society.
2. farmers should be more health conscious.
3. farmers should learn more about economics.

3. The author is of the opinion that

1. Hollywood always presents a picture of America that is better than reality.
2. real America is football games and glitter.
3. only ordinary people could say what America is like.

4. It seems that the author himself

1. lives in a city.
2. is a news reporter of a major national agency.
3. lives in a small town.

