

Task 4

- Read this text about a new film made in an innovating, interesting way. In most lines there is one word that should not be there. It is either grammatically incorrect or does not fit with the sense of the text.
- Read the text and then copy the extra word in the space provided after each line.
- Some lines are correct. Indicate these lines with a tick (✓).
- Your task begins with two examples (0).

Loving Vincent: the film made entirely of oil paintings

- 0) "I saw 50 or 60 painters painting, and someone told to me:
0) 'Oh it's you! I've been painting you for six months.'
26) Probably a lot of them knew my face more better than I,"
27) jokes Robert Gulaczyk, who plays Vincent van Gogh in a new animation – the world's first fully painted feature film.

- 28) Lot more than 100 artists from all over the world created
- 29) the 65,000 paintings that would make up Loving Vincent.
- 30) "We were told about many times by film financiers, by
- 31) people in the animation industry, that this was not a crazy undertaking," says co-director Hugh Welchman. "When you
- 32) will start to break it down, it's just about a matter of
- 33) fact how many painters you can find – and if you
- 34) can find enough painters at the quality level
- 35) where we needed."
