

Preposition

in, at, on

in - is used for months, years and long periods (in March, in the morning), at - used for a precise time (at 7.00 am, at 3.15 pm)

on - is used for days and dates (on Monday, on the 29th April).

Choose the correct preposition to complete the sentences below. (You can use the colour to help you)

1. I woke up 7.30 am this morning.
2. He was born 2013.
3. We usually visit our grandma Sundays.
4. We are going to Japan December.
5. Our class will start 10.30 am.
6. My brother will get married the 30th June this year.
7. I saw her 11.00 pm last night near the bridge.
8. They usually go hiking the morning.
9. Thursday, my mother will buy me a new toy.
10. My birthday is 27th April.
11. The shop opens 10.00 am every day.
12. I hope I will be a millionaire 2030.