

But grandma and grandpa are not there.
You open the next door.

Wow! This is not a ghost!
This is not a monster!

You are in the living room now.
There is somebody behind the curtains!

But grandma and grandpa are not there.
You open the next door.

Welcome to our House

You are in the dining room now.
The plates are on the table.

You are in the hall. You listen.
Nothing.

Let's play hide-and-seek again, Tommy!

You knock at your grandparents' door.
The door opens.

But grandma and grandpa are not there.
You open the next door.

Welcome to our house, Tommy!

Grandma and grandpa are not there.
You open the next door.

You are in the kitchen now.
You look around.

You are scared!
Is it a ghost? Is it a monster?

You are in the bedroom now.
Grandpa's glasses are on the table.

It's you, grandma! It's you, grandpa!
